

Date: 2 May 2017

To: Prospective Parliamentary General
Election Candidates or their Election Agent

IMPORTANT

PLEASE BE SURE TO READ THE CONTENTS OF THIS LETTER VERY CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING THE NOMINATION PAPERWORK

Dear Prospective Candidate/Agent

PARLIAMENTARY GENERAL ELECTION: COPELAND CONSTITUENCY NOMINATION PAPERS AND ASSOCIATED DOCUMENTS

Please find enclosed the necessary forms for submitting a nomination.

There are a number of important points which need to be made about the submission of the nomination, so please read all the information in this letter carefully before completing the various documents.

I. Attachments to this Letter

The following are attached:

2. Electoral Commission Guidance

The comprehensive guidance produced by the Electoral Commission for candidates/agents is available at <http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/candidate-or-agent/uk-parliamentary-general-election-great-britain> Election agents are strongly recommended to refer to the Commission's guidance throughout the election period, as necessary. The guidance is divided into six parts, plus an overview document.

3. Delivery of Nomination Papers

Nominations may be submitted between 10am and 4pm on any working day during the nominations period, which will start on the day after publication of the “Notice of Election”. Delivery of the Nomination Paper, Home Address Form and Consent to Nomination MUST be by hand, and must be by the candidate, their election agent (if appointed), or the proposer or seconder of the nomination. Whilst the other necessary documents may be sent by post it is clearly desirable for all documentation to be delivered with the nomination if at all possible.

Notice of Election will be on Friday 5th May 2017, and the nomination period will be 10 am to 4 pm on Monday 8th to Thursday 11th May 2017. Delivery must be to me or my appointed Deputy at Electoral Services, Copeland Borough Council, The Copeland Centre, Catherine Street, Whitehaven, CA28 7SJ.

Whilst not obligatory, it is recommended that an appointment is made for the delivery of the nomination.

Informal checks will be offered prior to submission, but this will be strictly by appointment only. It is also strongly recommended that you try to organise the submission of the nomination ahead of the last day if at all possible.

4. Validity of Nomination

To be valid, a nomination must be accompanied by (i) the consent form, duly completed; (ii) a certificate authorising the description to be used by the candidate (unless there is no description, or the description is “Independent”); (iii) the home address form, duly completed; and (iv) a deposit of £500. All of these are referred to in the following paragraphs, and dealt with comprehensively in the Electoral Commission guidance referred to in paragraph 2 above.

5. Number of Nomination Papers

Four copies of the nomination paper are included. These have been supplied (i) because the parliamentary elections rules allow up to thirty signatories, although only ten are required. If you do submit more than one nomination, please make it clear which is the “primary” one, from which the proposer and seconder will be taken; and (ii) for use in case of error.

6. Home Address Form

As mentioned in 4 above, the required documents include a “home address form”. This has to include the candidate’s home address (rather than it appearing on the nomination paper) and an indication as to whether the candidate wishes the address to be included on the ballot paper and notices. If not, then those will refer to the constituency in which the home address is situated. The nomination will not be valid in the absence of a properly completed home address form.

7. Consent to nomination

A properly completed consent to nomination is also required for the nomination to be valid. Please note that the consent includes the statement that the candidate is “aware of the provisions of the House of Commons Disqualifications Act 1975 (as amended) and to the best of my knowledge and belief I am not disqualified from membership of the House of Commons”. This is a complex area, and not one where I am able to offer specific advice. However, please be aware that the relevant provisions are available to inspect at the Elections Office. The Act may also be accessed at <http://www.statutelaw.gov.uk/content.aspx?activeTextDocId=1804148>. Please note that the website to which the above link will direct you gives warnings and information as to whether the legislation is up to date, and you are advised to satisfy yourself as to that and to check elsewhere if in any doubt.

8. Certificate of Authorisation and Use of Party Emblem

If the Candidate wishes to use a description other than “Independent” then the certificate of authorisation is required to be submitted during the nominations period.

It is essential that (i) the person who signs the authorisation is empowered to do so by the registered nominating officer for the political party concerned; (ii) the description is either one of the descriptions registered by the party concerned or the name of the party as registered; and (iii) what is entered on the certificate matches precisely the registered name or description and the description included on the nomination paper.

There is also a form which may be used by the candidate to request the printing of a party emblem on the ballot paper. Please be aware (i) that this request has to be made by the candidate; and (ii) that if the party concerned has registered more than one emblem, the request must make it clear which one is to be used.

Please note that the register of political parties can be accessed via <http://search.electoralcommission.org.uk/>, and that information and guidance about registering and maintaining a party is available at <http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/party-or-campaigner/guidance-for-political-parties/registering-and-maintaining-a-party>.

9. Candidate’s Deposit

Please note that:

- the Acting Returning Officer has the discretion to take payments by electronic means - but is not compelled to do so
- the deposit remains at £500, which is refundable if the candidate receives more than 5% of the total number of votes polled by all the candidates
- Payment can be made by:
  - (i) bankers draft, payable to Copeland Borough Council; or
  - (ii) Cash (legal tender) and, in either case, the money should be brought in when the nomination is delivered
  - (iii) I will take electronic payments on the basis that payment can be made online or by telephone banking. Bank details will be made available on request.

It is essential that any payment that is made includes a reference that will make it immediately clear to us who has made the payment. I expect that the ability to do this may vary depending on the service being used, but I do know that some online services allow the creation of a reference, e.g. "[Name of Party] deposit".

Please record the reference on the sheet at page 16, also referred to below

- if paying by online or telephone banking, please ensure that you notify the elections team as soon as payment has been made - preferably by email to stephanie.shaw@copeland.gov.uk but alternatively by phone – 01946 598535
- payments must be in the Acting Returning Officers account by the deadline for the delivery of nominations, i.e. by 4 pm on Thursday 11th May 2017 but, obviously, it is in the interests of the candidate for it to be in the account well in advance of that deadline
- I recommend that you check that the account from which the payment is being made is part of the "Faster Payments Scheme", as this should mean that the money is visible in the election account two hours after it has been made. If the account is not from a bank or other financial institution which is within the scheme, at least three clear working days should be allowed
- The Acting Returning Officer will not and cannot take responsibility for any failure in the banking system that results in a payment not being shown to me as deposited in the account by the nomination delivery deadline. This is the main reason that its strongly recommend that payments are made as far in advance of the deadline as possible
- online or telephone payments may be made at any time from now. Obviously, in the event of a payment being made, and of the party/candidate not actually submitting a nomination, then it would be refunded
- as we will repay the deposit after election day in respect of those candidates who achieve more than 5% of the total number of votes counted for all candidates, it is suggested that you should, at the time of submitting a nomination, give details of the payee and the account number etc to which the return payment should be made. We will aim to refund electronically if possible, but it may need to be by cheque

The document at page 16 is a form which, if properly completed and returned, will ease the administration of this aspect of the nominations process.

If the deposit is paid in advance by electronic means, then please return the completed form to me as soon as that has been done – it may be emailed to stephanie.shaw@copeland.gov.uk and please copy it to elections@copeland.gov.uk

10. Notification/Appointment of Election Agent and Sub-Agent

A candidate at a parliamentary election is required to appoint an election agent and, if he/she does not do so, then he/she shall be deemed to be his/her own agent.

To be effective, the appointment and notification of the election agent must be delivered during the period for the delivery of nominations.

More information about the role of the election agent is included in the Electoral Commission guidance referred to in paragraph 2 above.

I have also included a form for the appointment of a sub-agent. Please note that there is no requirement to appoint a sub-agent, but if you do so then the area which he/she covers must be specified, and not more than one sub-agent may cover the same area for the same election agent. A duly appointed sub-agent has the authority fully to act on behalf of the election agent.

The deadline for me to receive notification of the appointment of a sub-agent is two working days before the date of the election, i.e. no later than Tuesday 6 June 2017.

Please be aware of the requirements in relation to the office address for the agent. This must be in the Copeland Constituency, or an adjoining Constituency. If this requirement cannot be met because the agent has an address elsewhere in the country, then the address of the proposer of the nomination should be used instead.

If the address of the proposer is to be used, it is suggested that you ensure that he/she is aware of this, and that public notice of that address has to be given.

On a related note – if the candidate has completed the Home Address Form such that his/her address will not appear on the Statement of Persons Nominated or the Ballot Paper but then acts as his/her own agent, the address will then be published in accordance with the obligation on me to give notice of election agents.

II. Election Campaign and Election Expenses

More information about the role of the election agent, the election campaign, and the question of election expenses is included in Part 3 of the Electoral Commission guidance referred to in paragraph 2 above.

We will, as soon as possible after the close of nominations, supply the necessary forms for the declaration and return of expenses. For your information, we will do this in paper form, and also by email. This is because the Electoral Commission has made a version of the returns available in Excel format, which you may find convenient to use before printing for signature and return. If you would like to access these in the meantime, they are available to download from the resources section of part 3 of the page at <http://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/candidate-or-agent/uk-parliamentary-general-election-great-britain> in both Excel and pdf formats.

It should be noted that it is not the role of the Acting Returning Officer to be concerned with or advise on these issues. Should you require advice, then it may be sought from your Party (if you have one) or from the Electoral Commission (see 12 below).

Regarding expenses, it is worth me reminding you that:

- the statute requires the returns and declarations to be submitted by no later than 35 calendar days after the day when the result is declared, i.e. by no later than Friday 14th July.
- I am required to publish notice in a local newspaper of the fact that returns may be inspected at these offices, and that notice has to specify candidates for whom a return has been made, and any for whom one hasn't been supplied
- the candidate or election agent may make a request for the submitted documents to be returned to them at the end of the two year period during which they are available for inspection, failing which they will be destroyed at that time
- under electoral law it is an illegal practice to fail to submit the return and declaration or to submit a defective return, and a corrupt practice to make a false declaration. A person found guilty of a corrupt practice is, in general, liable to imprisonment, or to a fine, or to both, and is disqualified for five years from being registered as an elector, voting or holding any elective office, and a person found guilty of an illegal practice is liable to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale (understood to be £5000) and is disqualified from being registered as an elector, voting or holding elective office for three years.

Finally, to confirm the limit for election expenses is £8,700 plus 9p per registered elector and the total eligible electorate is 60,840. The Commission's guidance refers to this and also explains what constitutes the "regulated period".

12. Electoral Commission

Contact information for the Commission is included in its guidance referred to in paragraph 2 above. In summary:

Subject	Section	Contact Details
Standing as a candidate and other electoral practice matters	Advice	Tel: 0333 103 1928; email: infoengland@electoralcommission.org.uk
Election Expenses	Party and Election Finance Directorate	Tel: 020 7271 0616; or email: pef@electoralcommission.org.uk

13. Contact Information and Registration Queries

For queries as to whether individuals are included in the electoral register, please contact the elections team on 01946 598535, 598533 or 598375 or alternatively email elections@copeland.gov.uk

14. Supply of the Register of Electors

A candidate at a Parliamentary election is entitled to a copy of the register of electors, and a form for the purpose of making the necessary written request is included at page 17.

Please note the content of the form, and be aware that a person needs to be a candidate in order to make the request. The date someone becomes a candidate is explained in part 3 of the Electoral Commission guidance.

However, as I am sure you know, a registered political party may make a request for the register at any time, via its registered nominating officer.

15. Supply of Lists of Absent Voters

A candidate at a Parliamentary election is entitled to copy of the lists of absent voters, and a form for the purpose of making the necessary written request is attached at page 18. Any request for the current lists (as referred to in the form) will be dealt with as soon as possible after the person becomes a candidate (as referred to above).

16. Candidate Mailing

A candidate at a Parliamentary election is, subject to Post Office Regulations, entitled to send free of any charge for postage one postal communication, in relation to the election only, to all electors or addresses in the constituency. This is referred to on page 9 of part 4 of the Electoral Commission guidance. Candidates are recommended to obtain a copy of the Best Practice Guide from the Royal Mail website: www.royalmail.com/candidatemail and to contact the Royal Mail Election Support Team by email to: election.support@royalmail.com. At the last parliamentary election there was also a telephone number of 08456 076 416, and I believe (but am not certain) that the number remains current.

17. Nature of this Document

Please be aware that the matters on which I have commented and provided information in this letter are simply a few issues which I felt worthwhile to highlight at this stage. However, this is not intended to be comprehensive or definitive guidance, nor to obviate the need for candidates/election agents to refer to the Electoral Commission's guidance.

Generally speaking, myself and my colleagues in Electoral Services will be happy to help with any queries where we can, but that will not extend to campaign and expenses issues, and nor will it comprise legal advice – if such is required then it is for the election agent or candidate to obtain it as they see fit. I am sure that you can understand the reasons for this, which is not intended to be unhelpful, rather to attempt to clarify the proper role of the Acting Returning Officer and protect the positions of everyone concerned.

18. Communications

Please note that after the nominations period communications will be sent direct to the election agent, and it will be for him/her to liaise with the candidate as necessary.

19. Election Timetable

Details of the main dates and times included in the election timetable are set out overleaf.

I hope that this is all clear and useful.

Yours sincerely

Pat Graham
Acting Returning Officer

Notes

1. The attention of candidates and electors is drawn to the rules for filling up nomination papers and other provisions relating to nomination contained in the parliamentary elections rules in Schedule 1 to the Representation of the People Act 1983.
2. Where a candidate is commonly known by some title he may be described by his title as if it were his surname.
3. Where a candidate commonly uses a name which is different from any other name he has, the commonly used name may also appear on the nomination paper, but if it does so, the commonly used name (instead of any other name) will appear on the ballot paper
4. But the ballot paper will show the other name if the Returning Officer thinks -
  - (a) that the use of the commonly used name may be likely to mislead or confuse electors, or
  - (b) that the commonly used name is obscene or offensive.
5. An elector may not subscribe more than one nomination paper for the same election.
6. A person whose name is entered in the register may not subscribe a nomination paper if the entry gives as the date on which he will become of voting age a date later than the day fixed for the poll.
7. A candidate supported by a certificate of authorisation signed by the Nominating Officer of a political party (or someone on their behalf) may use the party name or a description allowed by that certificate and registered with the Electoral Commission. A candidate may stand on behalf of two or more different parties and use a registered joint description if supported by certificate(s) of authorisation from each of the parties. Any candidate may alternatively use the description of 'Independent', or leave the description box blank.

3. Where a candidate commonly uses a name which is different from any other name he has, the commonly used name may also appear on the nomination paper, but if it does so, the commonly used name (instead of any other name) will appear on the ballot paper
4. But the ballot paper will show the other name if the Returning Officer thinks -
  - (a) that the use of the commonly used name may be likely to mislead or confuse electors, or
  - (b) that the commonly used name is obscene or offensive.
5. An elector may not subscribe more than one nomination paper for the same election.
6. A person whose name is entered in the register may not subscribe a nomination paper if the entry gives as the date on which he will become of voting age a date later than the day fixed for the poll.
7. A candidate supported by a certificate of authorisation signed by the Nominating Officer of a political party (or someone on their behalf) may use the party name or a description allowed by that certificate and registered with the Electoral Commission. A candidate may stand on behalf of two or more different parties and use a registered joint description if supported by certificate(s) of authorisation from each of the parties. Any candidate may alternatively use the description of 'Independent', or leave the description box blank.
